Attendance of museums and galleries in Great Britain.

A lot of people believe that nowadays with the development of the Internet and movie industry, museums become less popular. This is very common thought, but actually it is not true. No one would complain ~~with~~ with the fact that tourism today ~~is~~ is flourishing. This fact also draws on museums' attendance. According to the rate, provided<sup>2</sup> by Social Statistics, ~~such as~~ such museums, such as National Gallery, grew up respectively since 2013. Also I should notice that 2014 has been the most substantial year from 2013 to 2017.

According to the ~~top~~ rate, provided by Social Statistics, ~~such as~~ such museums as British Museum, National Gallery and Tate Gallery grew up respectively since ~~2013~~ 2013. Also I ~~be~~ should notice that 2014 ~~was~~ was the most substantial year from 2013 to 2017. In this year, the leading<sup>1</sup> museums, such as Natural History Museum and Science Museum introduced admission charges. This action caused decrease of their attendants but helped other museums to grow rapidly.

British Museum's visits increased from 2.6 mln in 2013 to 5.6 mln in 2017, while Science museum lost 2.2 mln visitors at the same time. This shows that people are not ready to pay for visiting a museum yet. However, we should appeal for the fact that from 2015 to 2017 Science museum's attendance increased by half a million people, while Tate Gallery showed only 300 000 ~~thous~~ ~~peop~~ visitors growth.

I would recommend the boards of directors of Science and Natural History museums to cancel entry taxes. Also I ~~to~~ would like to recommend them to hold more ~~spac~~ activities in their museums, such as exhibitions, etc.

All in all, in 21st century everything is changing rapidly. And museums have to ~~fit~~ fit this new rules, they must find new ways to captivate their visitors.
